NATIONAL FISH CULTURE.

In February 1872, a little less than a year ago, the Association of Americ... Pisciculturists and of the Fish Commissioners of the State of New York was held at Albany to consider the plan of stocking the lakes, rivers and lakes of the United States with useful food fishes. At that meeting it was determined to make application to Congress for assistance in carrying out that plan, as whatever individual States might be disposed to do for themselves they would not be able to attract expense for the benefit of others. It was also the belief of the associa... that one of the most important things to be accomplished was the introduction of the varieties of foreign fish and that part of the... was discussed at considerable length. The matter in accordance with the resolution adopted to was laid before Congress and an appropriation of $15,000 secured to carry on the experiment. This sum was placed in charge of the Hon Spencer F... United States Commissioner of Fish... Fish Culturists by any just used. That it has justified the report of his labors for the past six months before Congress, Mr. Baird gives a detailed description of the... ponds and the meetings held... over the project matters which... finally been treated. Up to October operations were confined... to the collection of the food fishes of the... the best manner of their multi... the first practical move of the... was the transplanting of s... shad from the rivers of the Far West, where shad... abound, into the upper waters of the Atlantic rivers. That experiment was successful... shad were found in numbers corresponding with the... Delaware and Atlantic streams generally. In... the possibility of such a... Connecticut rivers and... supply a few years since had... fished. The Commissioner of... that shad could be esperi... hatching, and had been... ing each year after year in... numbers the aggregate in 1871... and in 1872 to 8...

In regard to what is proposed to be done... the Commissioner states... commence operations by... the spawn and hatching out... in all the Atlantic rivers beginning... with the St Johns of Florida and... with the advancing season, to the... further and further north until the... be closed in the Connecticut river... fish could be taken from the coast... of all lines of railroad to different... West and introduced there... granted by Congress to shad will be... with regard to shad will be... lakes, in continuation of... of the Commissioners of New... Vermont by whom several thou... fry and fish have been planted in... Lakes Champlain and Lake...

That it is nearly all the rivers of the... which formerly abounded with sal... now destitute of them made it nec... for the Commissioner to obtain the... quantities. A hatching house... at Bucksport Me where... already over 1,000,000 eggs. De... for the spawn of foreign sal... was made to the German... which has under its supervis... ing the fish established in... that river. It is estimated... half the shad ascends... the rivers of the far West,... that during placed in the upper... Hudson. That several mil... lish of the same species were... in the Connecticut rivers and... planted in the Alleghany river... in the White river at In... and at the head waters of the... Col Mr Baird is particu... in regard to the stocking... Mississippi and Missouri rivers. There is little or... with the anticipation... will prove as shad may swarm in... of the Mississippi equally including... tributaries of that river. The Commissioner... in numbers corresponding... with the Delaware and... generally. In... the possibility of such a... that which has followed the publication of... Mr Ames's testimony concerning Senator... Patterson. On Tuesday the committee will... resume its labors, having requested Mr Ames... to produce his original memorandum book... receipts, and all other papers bearing on the... case. Colonel McComb has also requested... permission to examine Mr Ames further... which will be granted. Intimations are current this evening that the truth is not yet all... out and that parties who have thus far escaped comparatively unnoticed will be thoroughly investigated. The committee has taken... leave of its tears and now knows so much that... it intends after the adjournment of Saturday's... recess. They are all in now. Logan is the... last one, except Poland, who has got ten... shares. Kelley gave him. I suppose he will... have to be investigated next.

The city of the Tribune says that Patterson... appeal for an other hearing and that Ames... has sent for documents that will create additional sensation. He writes

Judge Poland announced Saturday that he expected the investigating committee of which... is chairman would finish taking test mony... by Tuesday next but it is now doubtful... whether or not they will not be required. Mr... Patterson's friends say that it desires to ap... peal again before the committee and offer a... supplementary statement, which they... say will materially alter the effect of the... letter from him to Mr Ames upon which the... latter has placed a wrong interpretation. Mr... Ames, on the other hand, says that he has... told nothing but the truth, and that every... statement he has made is corroborated by the... memorandum book which Mr Ames has... placed in Patterson for arrives we shall... see. North Easton for arrives we shall... have other revelations and that other details... will be shown to have been as untrue as they... were unnecessary. Meanwhile the 27th... of ons into the affairs of other railroads will... bring other transactions reputations before... the public and supply materials for another... chapter of legislative history.

The Secretary special prefects an investigation... in view of the developments regarding Sen... Patterson and other members of the... Credit Mobilier that body will now proceed to... investigation of its own. There is a par... ticularly rife rumor that if during the... progress of the investigation either House... there is evident complication, a member of... the other House, the proceedings in investi... gation will be immediately stopped and a... committee of the evidence made and sent to... the House of which the implicated person is... a member. This rule will probably be com... plied with by the House to-morrow, if the... Senate thus be officially informed of the... action of Senator Patterson in the Credit... Mobilier. It is compected that the latter body... will not wait for an investigation up on a... matter which has been fully published in the... public press and investigation. Who... knows first Harlan or Patterson.

THE GENEVA AWARD

There are now two bills for the distribution of the money due to this country from Great... Britain under the award of the Geneva Tri... bunal. The first of these was reported to the... Senate from the Judiciary Committee, by... Senator Trumbull on Wednesday. It provides... for the appointment by the President of five... Commissioners whose duty it shall be to ex... amine and decide upon all claims not except... ed by the bill. The commission is to make... its own rules of procedure to sit in Washing... ton and to hold office for one year. No claims... to be admitted when the claimant has re... ceived any compensation by insurance or... otherwise but he may be allowed the differ... ence between the actual loss and the indem... nity. Claims for unrecorded freights, or specu... lative wages for more than one year, are not admitted. No claim of an insurance... company shall be allowed unless its losses by... war risks exceed the sum of its extra pre... miums nor any claim of an insurance com... pany not legally existing at the time of the... adjudication. Interest shall be allowed on ad... mitted claims at the rate of four per cent per... annum and ninety five per cent of the sum... awarded paid to the claimant.

The bill of the House Judiciary Committee... drawn up by Mr Butler and accompanied by a... long report was presented in the... House on Thursday. It is substantially the... same as the Senate bill in its principal pro... visions except that it specifically disavows the... intervention of claims of the commission. Claim... ants are divided into six classes in which are... included claims for amounts paid by owners... of war premiums of insurance on their ves... sels and it is provided that no account shall... be taken of unearned freights or prospective... profits. The great difference between the... two bills is that the House Bill provides for... the filing of petitions in the circuit or territorial... courts of the United States, instead of with... a special commission. Questions of law are... to be tried by the Supreme Court... and all claims must be presented before July... 1874. The last section of the bill provides... that the money when paid by Great Britain,... shall be invested in United States five per... cent bonds which shall be sold from time to... time and the proceeds of the sale used to sat... isfy claims.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

Senator Gary Frank Blair's successor, pro... fesses his name to be Hoge. What a name to... fill the speaking trum of future fame!

Secretary B G Northrup has decided not... to go to Japan, as Superintendent of Educa... tion and Professor Murray of Rutgers Col... lege has been chosen in his place.

Senator Trumbull will resume the practice... of law at the expiration of his term of office,... March 4. He has been in the United States... Senate since 1855.

A bill has passed the New York Senate,... the effect of which is to give the Constitu... tional Commission now sitting, power to re... organize the Judiciary system of the State.

It is reported that the leading members of... the House say that they will secure the pas... sage of the Senate bill repealing the franking... privilege.

Thurlow Weed—'the old man,' as he is... called at Albany—is still credited with and... abused for the New York Governor's ap... pointments.

There was a mass meeting in Delaware... lately to organize a "white man's party." It... was entirely harmonious, as the gentleman... who attended it assures all inquirers.

It is thought that the number of Republi... can candidates for Governor of Connecticut... is now reduced to three, namely Henry B... Harrison of New Haven, Henry P Haven... of New London, and Ames S Treat of... Woodbridge, ex-Speaker of the Assembly.

The Albany Journal says "The Tribune... cites Messrs. Bontwell, Fish and Creswell as... specimens of 'ignorance and incapacity' in... high places. But neither of these gentlemen... were so 'ignorant' as to believe that Mr.... Greeley could be elected President, or of such... profound 'incapacity' as to render a hopeful... campaign hopeless in thirty days by their... blundering imbecility."

Two heads are better than one, evidently... thinks the Providence Journal, which prints... the dispatches of two special Washington... correspondents, one of whom says: "The... prevailing impression is, on the whole, in fa... vor of accepting Ames' statement as truth,"... and the other says of the same Ames. "Gen... erally his statements, where they disagree... with those of other members, are discredit... ed." A very good idea of public opinion on... this matter.

Luther Tucker, the veteran editor of The... Cultivator, died at Albany, N. Y., on Sunday.

ACHING TEETH.

Former advertisements of Dr Babcock in regard to the facility of permanently saving aching teeth having developed considerable skepticism, he would state that during the past two years he has met success in this line of practice with his... which at the time of presentation were aching in all degrees of intensity and from every imaginable cause. In support of this statement he would refer to the following partial list of cases given below. Dr Babcock has recently retired and re... fers to all the following gentlemen throughout and in view of this fact he deems it no egotism in saying that he has the handsomest and most comfortable office in Bangor in the State of Maine, which fact of itself is a strong inducement for ladies to call for obvious reasons. The following are the names of the gentlemen referred to:

Dr Darling	Orlan lo Moor,
Prof Daniel White,	H L Bickford,
D G Stickney,	Wm Patterson
G Clark	Hiram M Morton,
A Watkins M D,	John C Gordon,
Capt Blake	Geo W Patten,
Reed & Kimball,	L G Southard,
Wm A Kirkpatrick,	Fred Wilson,
F A Woodbury,	N G Adams
Fred Verpleat,	Nevel Lilly,
Ed A Lynde,	Chas Webb
F A Sawyer,	W A Jennison
Avdon Lovejoy,

And many others. In fact, out of the many cases treated not a single one pronounced cured has ever proved a failure.

Consumption can be Cured.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP
SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC,
SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS,

Are the only medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption.

Sometimes medicines that will stop a cough will often close up the death of the patient. It locks up the liver, stops the circulation of the blood, hem rrhages flows and, in fact, clogs the whole machine every organ, and has caused the cough. Their combined and dyspepsia are the causes of two thirds of the cases of consumption. Many are now complaining with dull pain in the side, the bowels sometimes costive and sometimes too loose, tongue coated pain in the shoulder like a feeling sometimes of restless and at other times a throbbing of the heart that is taken like heavily on the stomach, but companied with acidity and belching of wind. These symptoms arise from a disordered condition of the stomach or a torpid liver. Persons so affected, if they take on or two bottles of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup in these cases be... heavy colds and if the cough in these cases be... suddenly stopped, the lungs, liver and stomach clog and remain torpid and inactive, and before the patient is aware of his situation, the lungs are a mass of pus, and ulcerated, and death is the inevitable result.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain any opium, nor anything calculated to check a cough suddenly.

Schenck's Seaweed tonic dissolves the food, mixes it with the gastric juice of the stomach, digests easily, nourishes the system and creates a healthy circulation of the blood. When the bowels are costive take sallow, and the patient is of a bilious habit Schenck's Mandrake Pills are required.

These medicines are prepared by Dr. J. H. SCHENCK & SON, Northeast corner of Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, Penn, and for sale by GEO G GOODWIN & CO, Hanover street, Boston, & JOHN F HENRY, 8 Co lege place, New York. Wholesale Agents.

The Credit Mobilier!

Committee Number Two!

ALLEY ON THE "SUSPENSE ACCOUNT."

Durant Implicates the Late Thaddeus Stevens!

The Statements of Durant Discredited!

Jim Fisk's Raid on the Pacific!

...TES WILSON COMMITTEE—JOHN B. ALLEY EXAMINED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. The Wilson Committee met at 11 o'clock, and the examination of J. B. Alley was resumed.

Witness said he had no knowledge whatever of the protest filed with the Secretary of the Interior by the Government Directors against a contract being made between the Union Pacific R. R. Co. and the Credit Mobilier, or any person being connected with the Credit Mobilier. He never supposed there was any such protest.

Mr. Alley testified that he was opposed to the Ames contract and parts of the assignment in the manner it was made to the Trustees; not on account of any wrong to the Union Pacific R. R., but because he thought it would be injurious to Ames by damaging his credit. If he should not be able to go through with it, and he was opposed to declaring dividends by the Credit Mobilier for the reasons stated.

HARLAN AND THE $10,000.

Chairman—Do you know of $10,000 having been paid to Harlan?

Ans.—There was never a dollar paid to any member of Congress or officer of the Government while I was a Director of the Union Pacific R. R. or connected with the Credit Mobilier, directly or indirectly, to the best of my knowledge and belief. The first I heard of the payment of such money was from Oakes Ames, about a year and a half after Harlan's election to the Senate. Mr. Ames informed me that Durant had personally contributed $10,000 towards the election of Harlan, and that this fact had just come to light, and further, that Durant wanted the Union Pacific R. R to pay it. Ames said he would not submit to its payment, and told Ames he was right in his opposition. The money was used before the Iowa Legislature was chosen. This sum was never, according to my knowledge, paid out of funds of the Union Pacific R. R., nor did it appear on the books of the Credit Mobilier.

DURANT'S "SUSPENSE ACCOUNT."

The witness, in reply to a question, said he did not know whether the $10,000 were embraced in the "suspense account" of $435,000. Durant said this money had been spent secretly or confidentially, and that further information could not be revealed by him, but that newspaper men got a good deal of it. As to the latter he could not speak positively. The impression of the witness was that the money was spent. Durant said that the money had in part been spent among members of Congress, and that $5,000 had passed to Thaddeus Stevens. Durant did not mention any other name of any member of Congress. Witness, and others acting with him at the time, did not believe a word of Durant's statement.

EXPENDITURES IN WASHINGTON.

Witness was further interrogated as to the expenditures on the "Suspense Account" by Durant, Bushnell and McComb. Witness said expenditures were alleged to have been made in 1862 and 1864, but he never believed that the money was thus spent. Witness thought that in April, 1864, a resolution was passed by the Board of Directors of the Union Pacific R. R. that a committee be authorized to go to Washington and procure additional legislation, and that such proper expense as were necessary be borne by the Company. An item of $112,000 was put in the account for this purpose. A resolution was afterwards passed sanctioning what had been done in accordance with the resolution of April, 1864. Witness knew nothing about the item of $120,000 for special legal expenses, as this was after he had retired from the Board.

THE JIM FISK RAID.

As to $50,000 for legal expenses paid at the time of the Fisk raid, Mr. Fullerton and Mr. Tracy said the suit could be settled for that sum. Witness was opposed to it, and advised Oliver Ames to have nothing to do with the business. Some time afterward he learned it had been paid to the counsel on an order signed by Oliver Ames. Witness never assented to it. When Judge Barnard was impeached the matter was brought up and Fullerton and Bushnell stated under oath that the money was paid to Fisk, who promised to withdraw the suit but did not do it. He went back on them. Witness was subjected to a long examination as to the building of the road and the mode in which payments were made. The Committee then adjourned till 2 o'clock this P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Wilson Committee re assembled at 2½ o'clock, when the examination of John B. Alley was resumed, from which it appeared that by the Oakes Ames contracts the parties participating in the dividends and avails signed an irreversible proxy to vote six-tenths of the stock of the Union Pacific Railway until the completion of the contract by Trustees of the Credit Mobilier, the Trustees thus having control of the Company.

Witness was investigated as to how it was that a portion of the road already completed, was included in the Oakes Ames Contract, which he explained by saying that the Credit Mobilier had spent more in building the road and felt it entitled to consideration, which was awarded and the matter was compromised.

FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 27.

SENATE.

Mr. Wilson of Mass., presented a remonstrance of the Boston Board of Trade against the passage of the bill for the repeal of the Bankrupt Act; also resolutions of the Boston Boot and Shoe Trade against the same bill.

Mr. Sawyer from the Committee of Education recommended an indefinite postponement of the bill to establish a Bureau of Sanitary Science. A bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to refund differential duties on articles actually on shipboard in French vessels destined for the United States on November 5th, 1872, passed.

Mr. Morrill of Maine, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill with amendments.

A large number of bills were introduced.

On motion of Mr. Conkling the Committee on Public Buildings was instructed to inquire into the expediency of making any use of the Executive Mansion other than that to which it is now devoted and of taking any steps to provide another residence for the President.

The bill to require the National banks to restore their capital when impaired and to amend the National currency act was passed.

The unfinished business of the legislative appropriation bill was taken up, and after a long debate Mr. Edmunds' amendment was adopted, as follows:—

And the Secretary of the Treasury is directed to withhold all payments from any railroad company or its assignee on account of freights for transportation of any kind over their respective roads to the amount of the payments made by the United States issued of interest upon bonds of the United States issued to any such company which shall not have been reimbursed, together with 6 per cent. of the net earnings due and unapplied as provided by law, and any company may bring a suit in the Court of Claims to recover in court the price of such freight and transportation, and in such suit the right of such company to recover the same upon the law and facts of the case shall be determined, and also the rights of the United States upon the merits of the points presented by the United States in answer to any such claim, and either party to such a suit may appeal to the Supreme Court, and both such Courts shall give such cause or causes precedence of all other business.

Mr. Morrill, of Vt., offered an amendment to the appropriation bill providing that judgment for claims against the United States shall not be paid except specially provided for until the claimants have proved that they never rendered aid or comfort to the rebellion.

All the Senators present voted in the affirmative, except Mr. Morrill, of Maine, Sprague, Trumbull and Hamlin.

Pending further action the Senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned.

HOUSE.

Under the call of States for bills a large number were introduced and referred.

Among the bills introduced were the following:—

Prohibiting oleomargine in things of an obscene and immoral character repealing the shipping commissioners act; amending certain tax on exported raw cotton and declaring Inauguration Day a legal holiday.

A resolution was offered that the Senate be requested to send back the Coast Island bill, that Mr. Sargent of Cal., raise a point of order against it and it was not received.

A resolution by Mr. Butler was adopted that the heads of departments furnish copies of questions propounded to candidates for clerkships.

A resolution was adopted to purchase the painting of the "Signing of the Emancipation Proclamation."

A resolution was adopted that the Judiciary Committee examine the question of salaries for U. S. Circuit and District Judges.

Mr. Platt moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill declaring the meaning of the amendatory bankrupt act of June 8th to exempt from judgments against bankrupts the amount allowed by the constitution and laws of each State respectively, as existing in 1871. Agreed to, and the bill passed.

Mr. McKee moved to suspend the rules and adopt a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to report forthwith a bill for refunding the cotton tax. Rejected Yeas, 76; nays 105.

Mr. Hawley of Conn., presented petitions from the Harvard University and forty other institutions of learning throughout the country, for the restoration to the Japanese Government of the balance of the indemnity fund unused. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. Lynch of Maine introduced a bill for the establishment of life saving stations on the coast of Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and North Carolina.

The Senate amendment to the House bill abolishing the franking privilege was agreed to. Yeas 143; nays 48. The amendment makes the bill take effect on the 1st of July, 1873, and provides that no allowance for postage shall be made to Senators and members. They also strike out a portion of the House bill providing for the issue of stamps to cover official correspondence or public documents, making the bill a pure and simple repeal. It now goes to the President for his signature.

Mr. Sargent of California moved to suspend the rules and pass a bill repealing, after the first of July, 1873, all laws for printing and distribution of public documents. Rejected. Yeas, 97; nays 93.

Mr. Hawley of Ill., introduced a bill for the appointment by the President of three commissioners to inquire into the general management of railways engaged in transportation between the several States.

Pending the action the House adjourned.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

—New moon to-night.

—City Council meeting this evening.

—New locks are to be placed on the drawers in the Post Office.

—The fine residence of B. H. Mace, Esq., on State st., is offered for sale.

—Eastern Insurance Company's annual meeting at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

—Annual meeting of the Bangor Historical Society at the Library Rooms this evening.

—Mr. George A. Rackliff of Unity, had the misfortune to have his leg broken yesterday, by a barrel of flour which rolled against it.

—Pickerel and white perch, just taken out of the water to dry, are quite plenty in our market, and selling at 10 to 12 cents per pound.

—Officer Grant of the night police has recovered from the illness which has confined him to the house for some time past, and returned to duty.

—Snow commenced falling early yesterday morning, and the storm continues as we go press, the wind blowing a gale and the snow drifting badly.

—The firm of Fifield & Buswell has been dissolved, and the accounts will be settled and the business continued by Mr. Chas. H. Buswell.

—We learn that during the thunder storm Friday evening a house near Cooper's Mills, Jefferson, was struck and badly shattered by lightning.

—The ladies of the First M. E. Church announce a levee in the vestry this evening, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the relief of the poor of the Society.

—Our Aurora correspondent writes that Mr. Ross Miller of Brewer, caught five deer last week, and his father-in-law, Mr. Oakes, of Township 29, caught five more.

—We notice by the Sioux City Journal, that our former townsman, John C. Flint, Esq., has been elected President of the Chamber of Commerce of Sioux City, Iowa.

—A dispatch from Eastport states that the small-pox has completely disappeared from that place, the public schools have been re-opened, and the excitement has entirely subsided.

—The Second Baptist Sabbath School has received the New Year's gift of a fine toned Cabinet Organ, from the young men of the Church and Society, to aid them in their singing.

—There will religious meetings every evening this week except Saturday, and on Wednesday and Friday afternoon, at the Free House, Columbia st., open to all that may desire to attend.

—A correspondent writes that Messrs. Morse and Mines of this city, have been doing a good business at Aurora catching pickerel, having in two days captured one hundred and ten large ones.

—The Kennebec Journal says that gratuitous entertainment will be provided to people from other towns who go to Augusta to attend the Mass Woman Suffrage Convention to-morrow and Thursday.

—"Put a head on that," said a venerable gentleman leaning down a letter and three coppers at the stamp window in the post office yesterday. A few minutes after he was seen calmly licking the back of George Washington's neck.

—We understand that persons from this city wishing to attend the promenade concert given in Town Hall, Oldtown, this evening by Andrews' orchestra, can obtain round trip tickets over the E. & N. A. Railway for one fare.

FIRE AT ELLSWORTH. About one o'clock Sunday morning the dwelling house of Chas. H. Haynes of Ellsworth Falls, took fire and was entirely consumed with nearly all its contents. The loss is estimated at about $1,500; partly insured.

—The carcasses of thirty-two fine deer came down on the E. & N. A. train last evening, on the way to Boston. Hundreds of deer are killed every week, and so plentiful is venison in the market that it commands but 3½ cents per pound by the carcass.

"GUILTY." Edward Darrah of Oldtown, whose arrest for forging the name of Lewis Ware on a check for $500, in November last, was mentioned at the time these columns, has pleaded "guilty" to the indictment for forgery, in the Supreme Judicial Court now in session at Auburn, but has not yet been sentenced.

—A correspondent writes that in one of the lumbering camps of Messrs. H. M. & B. Hall at Aurora, there are twenty-three men engaged in cutting and hauling timber. They have four teams, six horses and six oxen, which drew on the ice one day last week, thirty-nine thousand feet of lumber.

—The Maine Central train from the West was over two hours late last night, owing to the snow, as it had but one engine and no plow. The E. & N. A. train from St. John was only a few minutes behind time. The night express train from Boston came no farther east than Portland.

PATENTS issued to Maine inventors for the week ending Jan. 7th, 1873, and each bearing that date. Reported for the Whig & Courier, by W. F. Seavey, Solicitor:

Fredrick Collins, Portland, Thread Cutter for Sewing Machines.

H. F. Boody and E. P. Merrill, Portland, Feed Water Heater.

ELOCUTIONARY. Mrs. Anna Randall Diehl, who is now engaged in giving a course of lessons in reading, vocal culture and gesture to the teachers of this city, will also meet a class at Concert Hall every evening from 7 to 8 o'clock, commencing to-night. All wishing to join the class should be present at the first lesson. Mrs. Diehl will also instruct a limited number of private pupils.

A WORSHING MASON. The venerable John Dove of Richmond, Virginia, has perhaps done quite as much Masonic service as any man now living. He has been Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter since 1818, of the Grand Lodge since 1835, and Grand Recorder of the Grand Commandry of Knights Templar since 1845. If any man has done longer or more faithful service bring forward his name.

FATAL ACCIDENT. Our correspondent at Greenfield, writes that on Monday last, Mrs. Betsey Leman of that town, seventy-nine years of age, fell from a chair, breaking her hip and otherwise injuring herself so badly that, though she had the best of medical attendance, she died on Thursday.

On the same day Mrs. Benj. Jackson fell while kneeling over clothes, and broke her arm below the elbow.

SUDDEN DEATH. Capt. Samuel Morris of Vassalboro, who had been sick for two weeks past, felt much better Sunday, and went out about two o'clock in the afternoon to look after some other his horse. He shoveled some snow from his stable floor, entered and fell dead, struck by disease of the heart, supposed. He returned to the house and fell dead on the floor. He was sixty-eight years of age.

RUNAWAYS. A horse owned and driven by G. W. Merrill, Esq., took fright in West Market Square yesterday about noon, and kicking up, managed to get one leg over the cross-bar of the sleigh. This made a bad matter worse, and before the animal could be "straightened out" he had demolished the dasher and both thills of the sleigh. Mr. Merrill fortunately escaped injury, and with the aid of the bystanders succeeded in stopping his horse on Ingraham's corner.

A horse, whose owner's name we did not learn, dashed down Main st., across Kenduskeag bridge and up State st. yesterday forenoon, scatter ng teams and pedestrians in his wild flight, and if his has not been stopped is probably somewhere near Mattawamkeag by this time.

FATAL SHOCK. On Friday evening last the wife of Mr. Ira Smart of South China was with her husband and daughter sitting in a room in their house when the thunder storm commenced. The lightning was very sharp and accompanied by heavy thunder, and as Mrs. Smart's nervous system was so affected that she could not bear to remain where the flashes were so plainly visible, she went into her bedroom and laid down. Her daughter went in shortly afterwards and asked her how she felt, when she replied that she was dying. She shortly afterwards became insensible, and expired at 10 o'clock. She was apparently in her usual health in the early evening, but it is supposed that her heart was affected so that the shock and fright produced fatal results.

ROBBERY OF A PEMBROKE SHIPMASTER. A bold and daring robbery was perpetrated early last Saturday morning on board the schooner Sandalphon, lying at Smith's wharf, Cambridgeport, Mass. About 3 o'clock the captain, James E. Aylward, was awakened from a sound sleep and saw two men standing at his bunk. Before he could collect his scattered senses the cold barrel of a pistol was placed against his head and a sponge or cloth saturated with chloroform was applied to his face, producing immediate insensibility. When the captain awoke from his stupor (he being the only person on board the vessel) it was past noon. The cabin presented a scene of disorder and the thieves had carried away every thing of value that could be readily removed, including several suits of clothing, a revolver, some nautical instruments, and $100 in money which was in the Captain's pocket. Capt. Aylward is quite ill from the effects of the anesthetic administered to him and can give no description of the robbers, as it was dark when they attacked him.

BOUND TO SMOKE IT OUT. The small-pox has a most entirely disappeared from the city, the few cases remaining under treatment being in a fair way to recover. There is no danger to be apprehended by persons in neighboring towns coming here for trade or other purposes, notwithstanding the absurd rumors which have been circulating through the surrounding country. An incident which has come to our notice shows how much more frightened people are outside than in the city. A well-to-do farmer living in a town not many miles from here came into market a few days ago, and showed a face so unusually heavy colored, he was hardly recognized at the grocery store where he usually did his trading. To explanation of the cause of his dark complexion, he stated that the new Pilgrim townsmen had been receiving from the city, by hearsay, was so alarming, that his school district had called a meeting and voted that any inhabitant visiting Bangor, should, before and after doing so, go into a smoke-house used for curing bacon, and be shortly thoroughly fumigated. He thought he could carry back such a report as would prevent his being put to smoking.

MOLASSES TRADE OF THE UNITED STATES. The following figures show the import and consumption of molasses in the United States in 1872: The total receipts of foreign descriptions, as compiled by the New York Shipping List, exclusive of the States on the Pacific, were, in 1872, 43,167,398 gallons, against receipts in 1871 of 41,986,214 gallons, and that the consumption of foreign in 1872 was 42,-902,208 gallons, against a consumption of foreign in 1871 of 41,-65,784 gallons, while the total consumption of foreign and domestic cane molasses in 1872 may be stated at 53,-895,203 gallons, against a total consumption in 1871 of 52,665,784 gallons, being an increase in the consumption of foreign in 1872, as compared with that of 1871, of 1,829,419 gallons, or 4,44/100 per cent., and an increase in the consumption of foreign and domestic of 1,629,419 gallons, or a little over 3¼ per cent. Of the whole production of Cuba in 1872, say 200,000 tons, the United States received about 91 per cent. In addition to the consumption of cane molasses, the consumption of sugar-house molasses and syrups, and sorghum and maple syrup has been very large, and the consumption of all kinds last year exceeded one hundred millions of gallons. Statistics show that our population possess a greater taste for sweets than any other on the face of the globe. The present outlook seems to indicate an increased demand for foreign molasses for the year now entered upon.

THE CREDIT MOBILIER COMMITTEES. A Washington dispatch says both the Poland and Wilson Committees expect to close their testimony this week, so far as the Union Pacific Railway Company and Credit Mobilier are concerned. General Dodge has been telegraphed to come before the Wilson Committee as a witness. His testimony is considered important. This Committee may, in consideration of the great amount of labor involved, the distance of the headquarters of the Central Pacific Company and the short remaining time, be relieved of examination into its affairs.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the Second Session of the Forty-second Congress.

Detailed Regulations arranged between the Postmaster-General of the United States of America and the Royal Danish Department of Denmark, for the Execution of the Postal Convention signed at Washington the 1st day of December, 1871, and at Copenhagen the 7th day of November, 1871.

ARTICLE I.

The offices for the exchange of the mails shall be (1) on the part of the United States, New York, (2) Chicago; (on the part of Denmark (1) Copenhagen; (2) the travelling offices between Kiel and Korsor; (3) the travelling office between Kiel and Hamburg; (4) one of New York and Chicago shall make up closed mails for New York and Chicago each day.

Each mail exchanged between the two administrations shall be accompanied with a letter-bill, showing the postages, &c., according to each office of origin and destination. Such letter-bill shall follow the models A and B hereto annexed, and shall consecutively, beginning at the 1st day of January of each year, form a calendar for the year.

ARTICLE III.

The exchange offices shall divide the correspondence which they receive into a suitable number of separate packages according to the letter-bill, each package corresponding to one letter-bill and number corresponding to the letter bill.

ARTICLE IV.

Where more than 5 single rates is chargeable upon any letter or other article the number of rates to which it is subject shall be indicated by the adhesive postage stamps of a like value in the upper left corner of the address.

ARTICLE V.

Registered correspondence shall be described in a separate letter, following the models C and D, hereto annexed.

All registered letters shall be enveloped together in a strong paper secondly fastened, and sealed at the west, with wax, or other suitable material, so as to prevent any one from opening the envelope without breaking the seal, which shall bear such impression as may be agreed upon between the two offices.

The registered letters shall be packed together in a strong paper secondly fastened, and sealed at the west, with wax, or other suitable material, so as to prevent any one from opening the envelope without breaking the seal, which shall bear such impression as may be agreed upon between the two offices.

The strong paper envelope shall bear a label showing the number of registered letters shall be filled by the office of origin, expressing also the name of the office of destination.

In case registered articles are sent the proper blank of the letter-bill shall be filled with the word "and" at the end.

ARTICLE VI

The registered letter dispatched shall be acknowledged by the receiving office shall decide as to the validity of the registration, and shall also advise of its having in that case dispatching office.

ARTICLE VII.

All letters exchanged before the two offices shall be charged with the postage according to the rates of the United States and foreign postage rates, the office of origin, and he shall letters in accordance with all the rates of the United States and foreign nations in the waters and ports of the United States and Denmark respectively. The letter-bill shall take effect as to the ships and vessels of any particular nation having such treaty with the United States, from the 1st day of July, 1872, and shall have been satisfied that similar provisions have been made for the transmission of the mails and for all other contracting party, and shall have issued his proclamation to that effect, declaring that sec to be in force on such nation.

And whereas due inquiry having been made, and it having been duly ascertained to the satisfaction of the above provisions are in force in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland;

Now, therefore, be it known that I, ULYSSES S GRANT, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the same accordingly.

Done at the city of Washington this, eleventh [SEAL.] day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the ninety-sixth.

U. S. GRANT.

By the President.
HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

[RESOLUTION OF GENERAL NATURE—NO. 1.]

JOINT RESOLUTION providing for a more effectual system of quarantine on the southern and gulf coasts.

Whereas experience has proved that the epidemic yellow fever of pestilence on the southern and gulf coasts is insufficient to prevent the ravages of epidemic yellow fever and the diseases of like character from the disembarkings, with a consequent fatal to mankind and destructive to commerce; and

Whereas it is the duty of the Government of the United States to provide for the protection of the lives of the people and the commerce of the country from the introduction of such diseases; and

Whereas the Constitution of the United States, and secured by the act of Congress approved March 3, 1803, entitled "An act to prevent the importation of certain persons into States, Territories, or Districts of the United States, without the consent of the authorities of the same," and for that purpose have appointed their agents and officers, and

Whereas the United States of America, George Bancroft, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States near His Majesty the Emperor of Germany, and Frederick W. Seward, Chargé d'Affaires of the United States near the Government of Switzerland, and Henry Cooke, their Consuls, have agreed to and signed the following articles, viz:

ART. ONE.

Each of the contracting parties agrees to receive from the other consular agents, duly commissioned and provided with the exequatur of the power to which they are sent, who may reside in any of the consular districts of the country, to which they may be assigned, after the usual notification has been given.

ARTICLE II.

Consular agents shall be authorized to apply to the authorities of their consular district, and to complain to them, if necessary, of any infraction of the present convention, or of any violation of the rights and privileges granted to consular officers by the laws of the country. Should their complaints not be duly attended to by the local authorities, they may address themselves to the Government of the country where they are established, and to the Government which appointed them, if necessary, in order to obtain a due redress.

ARTICLE III.

Consular agents shall have the right to receive in their chancery, or in their offices, or even at their dwellings, such declarations as the parties may be willing to make, in order to prepare and draw up authentic acts, wills, and testaments, for their countrymen, and for foreigners, for the latter to be used in the country to which the consular agent belongs.

They shall also have the right to receive, in the same manner, all contracts between citizens of their own country and inhabitants of the country where they reside, and even those between inhabitants of the latter country, provided that such contracts relate to property situated or business to be transacted within the territory of the nation by which the consular agent has been appointed.

They shall also have the right to receive, in the same manner, all acts relating to the emancipation of slaves belonging to citizens of their own country, to the settlement and definitive establishment of persons of full age, and to the emancipation of minors, subjects of their own country.

ARTICLE IV.

Consular agents shall have the right to take possession, administratively and judicially, of the estates left by their countrymen who may die within their consular district, whether they have died intestate or have named executors to their wills.

They shall have the right to represent their countrymen, or to cause them to be represented, by duly appointed attorneys, before the tribunals and other authorities of the country where they reside, in all matters relating to the succession to the estates of deceased persons, and to the guardianship of minors, or of persons declared incapable.

They shall have the right to represent their countrymen, or to cause them to be represented, in like manner, in all matters relating to the restitution of deserters from the vessels of their country, and to the arrest, detention, and prompt delivery of such deserters, who shall for that purpose address requisitions to the competent local authorities, and prove by the ship's papers, or by a copy of them, that the persons claimed belonged to the crews of vessels of their country.

ARTICLE V.

The consular agents of the United States of America and of Germany shall enjoy in the territories of each other, in all that relates to their official duties, the same privileges as those which are granted to the consular agents of the most favored nation.

ARTICLE VI.

The consular agents, their secretaries, chancellors, and attachés, shall enjoy in the territories of each other the same privileges and immunities as those which are granted to the consular agents of the most favored nation.

ARTICLE VII.

The consular agents, their secretaries, chancellors, and attachés, shall be exempt from all personal taxes, whether imposed by the general government or by the local authorities of the country where they reside, unless they own property or pursue commerce therein, in which case they shall be subject to the same taxes as other persons in similar circumstances.

ARTICLE VIII.

The consular agents, their secretaries, chancellors, and attachés, shall be exempt from military billetings, and from service in the militia or in the national guard of the country where they reside.

ARTICLE IX.

The consular agents, their secretaries, chancellors, and attachés, shall be exempt from all taxes, imposts, and charges on their offices and on the archives of their consulates.

ARTICLE X.

The consular agents, their secretaries, chancellors, and attachés, shall be exempt from all taxes, imposts, and charges on their offices and on the archives of their consulates.

ARTICLE XI.

The consular agents, their secretaries, chancellors, and attachés, shall be exempt from all taxes, imposts, and charges on their offices and on the archives of their consulates.

ARTICLE XII.
